Relic of a Tragedy.

What is undoubtedly a knife which figured in a tragedy that stirred Kentucky from center to circumference, some 20 years ago, is in the possession of Mr. B. H. Perkins, of this city. The knife was used by Col. William Cassius Goodloe in the fatal encounter in the post office at Lexington in November, 1889, in which Col. Armstead Miller Swope was stabbed to death, and Col. Goodloe died a few hours later from the effects of a wound from a pistol shot fired by Col. Swope. The knife was picked up from the floor of the postoffice by one of the clerks in the office, and covered with blood, was wrapped in a newspaper.

J. H. Swope, a brother of Colonel Swope, went to Lexington immediately on receipt of the news of the tragedy, to look after the remains, and for some reason the knife was turned over to him. Mr. Perkins was conducting a hotel in Danville at the time, and Mr. Swope brought the body to his house, on the way to Lincoln county for interment, and stopped with Mr. Perkins.

The knife was handed over to Mr. Perkins' clerk to be kept over night, and was placed in the office safe. In the excitement incident to the occasion, the knife was forgotten, and remained in the safe wrapped in the bloody paper, about a year. Mr. Perkins sold his hotel to A. Tribble, and in cleaning out his safe, incident to turning over the business, he found it there, and still has it in his possession. The knife has a buckhorn handle and a spring on the back to prevent it from closing when in use. When opened it is a fraction over 8 inches in length, the blade, which has a razor edge, being a fraction over 3 1/2 inches in length. It has I X L on the blade, and was made by George Wostenholme, Sheffield, England.

Colonel Goodloe was a member of one of the most prominent families in Central Kentucky, and stood high in the councils of the Republican party in Kentucky. Col. Swope was born and reared in Lincoln county where he was widely connected. He was a splendid specimen of intellectual and physical manhood. He held the office of Internal Revenue Collector, in the Lexington district for a number of years. The trouble grew out of political jealousies, and culminated in the terrible tragedy. —Middleboro News-Record.

"Wherever I was invited in America, always there was a crowd. Everybody seemed to be present."

"Everybody and his wife?"
"No, another peculiar thing—everybody and her husband."—Puck.

In a special message to Congress President Taft recommends legislation at the extra session of Congress to amend the Foraker act under which the territory is governed. The President says: "A situation of unusual gravity" exists through the failure of the assembly to pass the appropriation bills and charges that the Porto Ricans have forgotten the generosity of the United States and have too much political power. He concludes that the right to make appropriations should be taken away.

The Courier-Journal covers a multitude of faults when it announces editorially that it will not only refuse to support Senator McNutt but will oppose any ticket on which his name may appear. McNutt is one of the skunks, who after being elected by democrats, voted for Hon. W. O. Bradley for Senator.

THE Courier-Journal will not support Senator McNutt, who is the democratic nominee for the United States Senate, but voted for a straight out republican, thereby separating himself from the democratic party. This is enough to make a canine cachennate. Mr. Watterson must have gone daft or seen the handwriting on the wall that his interests must walk the plank. It was a matter not only of general rumor, but of plain fact that the Courier-Journal and its emissaries not only beat Beckham for the Senate but gloried in their shame, that McNutt, Charlton and Mueller were simply tools of Boss Vreeland, who controls the policy of the Courier-Journal, whether Mr. Watterson knows it or not. This same Vreeland maintained headquarters at Frankfort during all the memorable contest and was regarded as Senator Bradley's chief lieutenant, working night and day to defeat the Democratic nominee. Having secured McNutt to aid in the accomplishment of its design, it is base ingratitude for the Courier-Journal to desert him now and shows that there are exceptions to the rule of honor among thieves. Had they not been backed by the Courier-Journal, its managing editor and local correspondents, it is doubtful that the three Louisville men would have dared to turn down a democratic nominee. Mr. Watterson can not fool some of the people some of the time by his belated protestations in the matter of a democrat voting for a republican nominee. The Courier-Journal and the Courier-Journal alone is responsible for Gov. Beckham's defeat and the election of Senator Bradley, and that paper has no more standing in the democratic party than the miserable creatures that it seduced from the paths of party virtue. Senator McNutt is eminently deserving of the support of the Courier-Journal and it is ingratitude of the basest sort to withhold it.

THE Courier-Journal prints pictures of distilleries every Sunday under the headline of "Some Plants that State Would Prohibition Would Strike from the Tax Lists." As there is absolutely no good reason for the existence of such plants, all we have to say is "let 'em strike."

JULIA WARD HOWE, who is celebrating her 90th birthday, says: "The deeper I drink of the cup of life, the sweeter it grows—the sugar is all at the bottom." Most of us do not find it so. Youth is the time to enjoy life as well as to serve the Lord.

CHILD stealing for a ransom got a very black eye when Boyle was given a life sentence and his so-called wife one of 20 years for kidnapping Willie Whittle. The criminal class will observe with horror that such crimes are neither a safe nor an easy way of raising money.

BOSTON women are discussing the question whether beauty and brains go together. From all we have seen of them we should say that if they do there are no brainy women in the Hub of the Universe.

A PASSENGER on a train in New York State placed his baggage on a seat and went into the next car. When he returned he found the seat occupied by two men, who refused to give it up. A row ensued and also a suit at law. After passing through the several minor courts the case reached the court of appeals, which decided that a man does not reserve a seat in a railway coach by placing his baggage in it; a fact that travelers may do well to remember.

CAPT. HAINS' blasphemous attorney told the jury that "it was an act of God that directed Captain Hains' hand when he took the life of the man who ruined his home." But they didn't take any stock in that sort of rot, and convicted him of manslaughter. A Kentucky jury might have agreed with him, but no such foolish sentiment animates the heart of the average New Yorker.

THAT women club life is not conducive to the visits of the stork is shown that in three clubs in Chicago, with a total membership of 835, there were but three births in the past year. Teddy ought to stop killing wild animals and return at once to lecture these women on the sins of race suicide.

THE auditor announces that the dog tax of last year amounted to $149,907.14, of which $106,164.75 was paid to the school fund after paying the owners $43,742.39 for sheep killed by dogs. This is making the worthless curs help some to cover the loss they create.

Almont Dare 3228.

A. S. H. R.

Sired by Dignity Dare 1962, he by Chester Dare 10, he by Black Squirrel 88, he by King William 97, 1st dam Tossaway 478, also registered in Vol. 10, A. S. H. R., sired by Adalsh Nambirino 3715, he by Almont 263, 2nd dam Lady Davis by Crit Davis, by Houston Chief, 3rd dam Mattie S., by Foreign Light, by Foreign, by Imported Glencoe, 4th dam Little C., by Cunningham's Copper-bottom, 5th dam by Imported Bunsard.

Almont Dare, so far as we are able to discover, is the first horse on record having to his credit the honor of defeating with his own progeny those of his great sire, Dignity Dare, doing so with his first crop of colts every time they came together. As an individual this is a very attractive horse, 16 hands high with lots of weight and finish, color, bay; action extremely high and fast, shows a distinct saddle gait, all very fast and pleasant. A full brother to the great gelding, Nettleton, that sold at 4 years for $5,000 and to the great show mares, Foxy Dare, that won more premiums for the number of shows than any mare ever sired by Dignity Dare.

Were it not for two splints coming on him he would easily have won the State Saddle Championship. This horse is a result of a long and careful mating of the very best of the country afforded. His backing is blood and individuality, is as strong as Gibraltar and his colts are rapidly proving him. He will make the season of 1920 at our stable, 2 1/2 miles from Hustonville on the Hustonville & Liberty pike, at $15 to insure a living colt. Mares traded or bred elsewhere renders season due at time of such transaction.

Will also stand a mule jack at $5. Gross furnished in abundance at $2 per month. Our personal attention to all stock but will not be responsible for accidents.

STOP!

Did you ever stop and figure how much cheaper we can sell a better Buggy than the so-called good buggy that sells at $135 to $150? We can save you $15 to $25 on each. Why? We sell direct. We can make just as cheap as the man in New York, Chicago or St. Louis, or anywhere and we can save you the profit of handling, drayage and freight and drummer, and the greatest of all is the dealers profit.

Let us figure with you; we have the latest improved machinery; we have a wheel drill that drills a wheel in 3 minutes; we have a sandpapering machine that will do the work of 12 men; our emery and sand belt machine has no equal. Our flexible drill machine will drill 2000 holes in buggy shafts and bodies in a day. How does this figure in drilling by hand. Give us a call. We paint old vehicles and make them look like new.

SCOTT.—News comes from Peoria, Ind., that Mr. Solomon Scott, formerly of the Goshen section of this county, is dead. He was about 75 years of age and a most excellent man. Besides a wife several children are left to mourn the loss of a good husband and father.

OUR boys mopped up the Lancaster baseball team 9 to 3 on the Lancaster grounds Wednesday afternoon. This is the 11th game Stanford's crack team has played without meeting a Waterloo. The Hustonville team will come down this Friday, afternoon and receive a dose at the hands of our boys.

THE campaign in the judicial race is about at an end and to-morrow, Saturday, the democrats of Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Mercer will have their say. The race between Judges M. C. Saufley and John Sam Owsley, Jr., has warmed up considerably but it is not probable that a large vote will be polled. The farmers are busy and if Saturday is clear and warm we predict many of them will remain on their farms and attend to business.

AN exciting runaway occurred on Main street Tuesday afternoon. A mule Mrs. W. A. Beal, of Cook's Springs, was driving got "muleish" and took down the street at a break-neck speed. A runaway belonging to Judge M. C. Saufley was struck and both vehicles were turned over. Mrs. Beal and her grand-daughter, just a year old, were thrown out with much force, but fortunately escaped injury. Judge Saufley and Mr. George L. Penny jumped out of their buggy when they saw the runaway or else they both might have been hurt. It is almost a miracle that Mrs. Beal and the baby were not killed or badly maimed.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, as those of our readers who understand plain English know, has taken no hand in the judicial primary to be held to-morrow, Saturday, and has published as few as possible the charges and counter charges made by the candidates before that primary, believing that the least publicity given such things, the better it will be for the party. Both of the candidates are personal friends of the editor of this paper and he can and will cheerfully support the successful one. He hopes the primary will be a clean, orderly one and that nothing will be said or done that will reflect on the democratic party or add weight to that gentleman who will be the standard bearer in November. So in advance, this paper tenders its congratulations to the winner and its sympathy to the loser and predicts a rousing democratic victory when the tides of November come.

SEVERAL of those who have been tried and fined for selling whisky in Stanford have asked us to withhold mention of them. We now serve notice on the illicit whisky or beer seller that if he is fined he may expect to see his name in print in this paper. The I. J. will not be a respecter of persons and the white and black, rich and poor will be exposed if they are proven guilty.

It seems to us that the lot sale to be held here Saturday, May 22, will be a success in every particular. It has been well advertised and it is our opinion that there will be a good many people here from adjoining counties. Taking in consideration that there is not a vacant house in town, and we know there are calls for houses every day, it seems assured that these lots will sell readily. These are practically the only building sites left that can be bought, and besides, they are the most desirable lots in Stanford. There is a lively interest being manifested over the sale of this property, and we are glad to see it. Let everybody put their shoulder to the wheel and help build up the best town on the map.

Trials 2:29 trotting, dark bay stallion, 16 hands; bred August 1891. 1st dam Naught 17:00 by Alex. American 2:20, 4-year-old record 2:11 1/2, sire of Battleton, 4-year-old record 2:40 1/2, American Belle, 3-year-old 2:12 1/2, and others in 2:30 list. 2nd dam Onward 1:41, record 2:25 1/2, sire of Onward Silver 2:35 1/2, and 170 others in the 2:30 list. Onward was sired by George Wilkes 2:30.

2nd dam Inferna, sired by Mambrino King 1:25, sire of 75, including Lady of the Manor 2:04 1/2, Lord Derby 2:07 1/2, heir at law 2:09 1/2, and others in 2:10 list.

5th dam, Millard by Albion, 6th dam Ned by Edin Forest, 7th dam Lady Turner by Mambrino Chief 11.

The Warfield is a representative stallion in all the word implies. To say that he has size, substance and speed only in part emphasize the qualities combined in this son of Dare Devil. He has them and they are of such symmetrical character as to make him a stallion among many. His head and neck, body, feet and legs are perfect and when seen in connection with his faultless gait and great beauty are especially impressive. You should see this horse before breeding. You will say you never looked at a better one. The Warfield is the only stallion that has 7 dams in the great brood mare list. He has two Mambrino King crosses, two Mambrino F. F. crosses, two Mambrino Chief, one Chimes, 1 Onward, 1 George Wilkes, 1 Electra, 1 Nutwood, 1 Strathmore, more trotting crosses than any stallion alive.

The Warfield is by Dare Devil 2:08, record 2:00. He by Mambrino King 1:25, he by Mambrino Chief 11, he by Mercedes, by Chimes 1:35, by Electra 1:25.

Dare Devil is a great winner. He won the championship at the National Horse Show in 1888, class 4; first National Horse Show in 1888, class 12; championship National Horse Show 1890, class 2; first National Horse Show 1898, class 12; championship National Horse Show 1900, class 2; first National Horse Show 1901, class 8; first National Horse Show 1902, class 12; reserve Boston Horse Show 1902, class 1; second Boston Horse Show 1902, class 2; second Boston Horse Show 1903, class 1; third Boston Horse Show 1903, class 7.
